FOOD & BEVERAGE

Ambos, our evening restaurant, means “yes to both.” It is brought to life by Chef Norberto Piattoni, inspired by his Argentine heritage and his prolific fermentation practices and cooking methods. Here you will find local meat, seafood, fresh pasta, and produce—transformed by live-fire cooking and other bespoke culinary processes and interpretations.

The beverage menu, created by cocktail luminary Arley Marks, weaves together a collection of classic and original cocktails, along with a selection of tonics and non-alcoholic drinks. The wine list primarily focuses on Argentine, Italian, and Spanish wines that are served alongside a selection of our local Hudson Valley and Eastern Seaboard makers.

Lofty and serene, each guest room is designed to give to you, not take from you. Oversized windows pull in natural light — and no two views are the same. Custom furniture, textiles, and art complement the industrial history of the building, providing nuance and balance, discovery and interpretation.

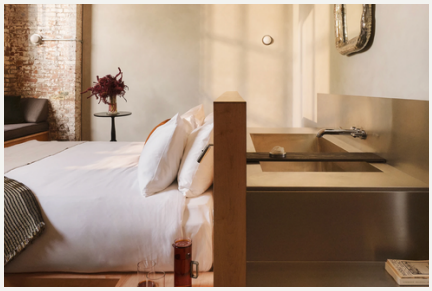

An organic flow leads you to the washroom, a generous space for reflection and respite.
